Arbitration & Conciliation Act, 1996 (Central Act 26 of 1996)—Sections 11 and 21—Appointment of arbitrator—Commencement of arbitral proceedings—Limitation—Period during which the parties were bona fide negotiating towards an amicable settlement may be excluded for the purpose of computing the period of limitation—Nevertheless, once the applicant has asserted its claim and respondent fails to respond to such a claim, such failure will be treated as a denial of the applicant's claim giving rise to a dispute and therefore, the cause of action for reference to arbitration would arise—A party waiting for an unreasonably long period would not be entitled to seek exclusion—Vigilantibus et non dormientibus jura subveniunt - M/s Beautiful Properties Pvt. Ltd. v. Airports Authority of India - I.L.R. 2026 Kerala OnLine 233 : Neutral Citation No.2026:KER:47162.

Banning of Unregulated Deposit Schemes Act, 2019 (Central Act 21 of 2019)—Section 7(3)—The properties which are subject matter of provisional attachment under Section 7 and confirmation under Section 15 are the properties acquired in the name of the deposit taker or in the name of any other person on behalf of the deposit taker—Section 7 empowers the Competent Authority to provisionally attach not only properties acquired in the name of the deposit taker, but also properties acquired by the deposit taker in the names of any other persons on behalf of the deposit taker—Where materials available convincingly show that a property in the name of a relative or any other person was acquired on behalf of the deposit taker, such property can also be the subject matter of attachment under Section 7—Banning of Unregulated Deposit Schemes Rules, 2020 (Central)—Rule 4 - Amina Muhammad and another v. District Collector (Competent Authority under BUDS Act) and others - I.L.R. 2026 Kerala OnLine 234 : Neutral Citation No. 2026:KER:44019.

Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (Central Act 2 of 1974)—Section 227—Explanations 1 and 2 to Section 299 IPC deem only the cause of death and not the culpability of the accused—Even where death is shown to have been caused by the act of the accused, an offence of culpable homicide is not attracted unless it is further established that the act was committed with the requisite intention or knowledge—Whether the accused pushed the deceased and whether he was aware of her cardiac condition are matters of evidence to be determined at trial—Court while considering an application under Section 227 is not expected to conduct a mini-trial, and is only required to consider whether sufficient grounds exist to proceed against the accused—Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023—Sections 438 and 442—Penal Code, 1860 (Central Act 45 of 1860)—Sections 299, 300 and 304A - Rajesh R. v. State of Kerala and another - I.L.R. 2026 Kerala OnLine 224 : Neutral Citation No. 2026:KER:40140.

Constitution of India—Articles 14, 15(1), 15(3) and 226—A classification on the ground of sex is permissible provided it is not based solely on the fact that the person belongs to a particular sex but is a result of other considerations as well—By the joint operation of Articles 15(1) and 15(3), the State may discriminate in favour of women against men, but may not discriminate in favour of men against women—Where the State, in furtherance of the Directive Principles of State Policy, evolves and implements a welfare scheme or concession involving the distribution of State largesse, the principle against treating unequals as equals has no application, since that principle applies only where the law or State action imposes a burden on the citizen—Judicial review of a Government policy can be undertaken only when the action is unconstitutional or contrary to statutory provisions, and courts cannot interfere with the soundness or wisdom of a policy—Article 226 - Muhammed Firdouz v. State of Kerala and another - I.L.R. 2026 Kerala OnLine 235 : Neutral Citation No. 2026:KER:44884.

Constitution of India—Articles 19 and 21—Right to walk is a fundamental right under Part III of the Constitution—Fundamental right to walk will take within its sweep the right to demarcated footpaths—Violation of the right to walk on demarcated footpaths will entitle the citizens to invoke constitutional and legal remedies against officials for restitution and compensation, which is independent of the remedies that are available under the Motor Vehicles Act, 1988 - Maniyar Iliyaz @ Shaik Riyaz and another v. Ayyappan P and others - I.L.R. 2026 Kerala OnLine 231 (SC): Neutral Citation No.2026 INSC 647.

Employees' Compensation Act, 1923 (Central Act 8 of 1923)—Exclusion of liability to pay interest on compensation is not absolute—Interest liability attracts if the insurer does not specifically plead and prove non-compliance of statutory requirement by employer or applicant—Non-consideration of binding precedents constitutes a valid ground for review - M/s. Poabs Enterprises Private Limited and another v. New India Assurance Co. Ltd. and others - I.L.R. 2026 Kerala OnLine 229 : Neutral Citation No.2026:KER:43936.

Headload Workers Act, 1978 (Kerala Act 20 of 1980)—Assistant Labour Officer and the Appellate Authority rejected applications for registration filed by alleged permanent employees of an establishment solely on the ground that registering them would cause the Pool workers maintained under the Act to suffer—Single Judge quashed the said orders—Such a reason could never have been cited by the competent Authorities while considering a statutory application for registration, being wholly untenable and without forensic basis, and the Single Judge was right in quashing the orders—However, a writ court acting under Article 226 cannot itself decide factual matters of registration in the first instance, bypassing the statutory mechanism provided under the Act for consideration of such applications—Writ court cannot direct a third-party authority to call for documents from an establishment outside the statutory scheme—Constitution of India—Article 226 - Kerala Headload Workers Welfare Board v. T.P. Tiles Centre and others - I.L.R. 2026 Kerala OnLine 226 : Neutral Citation No. 2026:KER:38948.

Insurance—Road traffic accident—Claim for compensation—Claim of legal heirs cannot be rejected merely because post mortem certificate makes reference of occlusive coronary artery disease—Where post-mortem report itself indicates that the injuries sustained in the accident could have accelerated or precipitated the death, it can be held that death was mainly on account of the accident - United India Insurance Company Co. Ltd. v. Salpriya and other - I.L.R. 2026 Kerala OnLine 227 : Neutral Citation No. 2026:KER:40266.

Law of Insurance—Claim for compensation—‘Consumption of alcohol’ & ‘influence of alcohol’ distinguished—Mere consumption of alcohol is not sufficient to deny a claim—It should be brought on record that the person was under the influence of alcohol - United India Insurance Company Co. Ltd. v. Salpriya and other - I.L.R. 2026 Kerala OnLine 227 : Neutral Citation No. 2026:KER:40266.

National Trust for Welfare of Persons with Autism, Cerebral Palsy, Mental Retardation and Multiple Disabilities Act, 1999 (Central Act 44 of 1999)—Sections 10, 14 and 15—No restriction of any kind, including seeking permission from a Local Level Committee, imposed on Courts, Tribunals, or other statutory authorities from dealing with the properties of wards—Aggrieved persons in a writ petition against SARFAESI proceedings have an alternative and efficacious remedy before the DRT—Securitisation and Reconstruction of Financial Assets and Enforcement of Security Interest Act, 2002 (Central Act 54 of 2002)—Section 13(2) - Banaseer Banu P.A. and another v. Canara Bank and others - I.L.R. 2026 Kerala OnLine 223 : Neutral Citation No. 2026:KER:40509.

Panchayat Raj Act, 1994 (Kerala Act 13 of 1994)—Section 238—Section 238 of the Act 1994 is applicable only if any tree, or branches, or portion of trees or fruits of a tree is likely to fall and thereby endanger any person or any structure or any cultivation—At that stage, the Panchayat can take necessary steps—Where no danger exists, interference is not warranted - Gopinath R. v. Ombudsman for Local Self Government Institutions and others - I.L.R. 2026 Kerala OnLine 228 : Neutral Citation No.2026:KER:44156..
